POUND
CIVIL JUSTICE
INSTITUTE

About the Pound Civil Justice Institute

The Pound Institute is a legal think tank, supported by member Fellows, dedicated to the cause of promoting access to the civil justice system through its programs and publications. Since 1956, the Institute has promoted open, ongoing dialogue among the academic, judicial, and legal communities on issues critical to protecting the right to trial by jury in an effort to bring positive changes to American jurisprudence. We do this through:

Annual Forum for State Appellate Court Judges—Since 1992, Pound's Judges Forum has brought together judges from state appellate, legal scholars, attorneys, and policymakers to discuss major issues affecting the civil justice system. Lauded by attending judges as "one of the best seminars available to jurists in the country," the Forum is unique in its mission to educate state judiciaries on the civil justice system. Forum reports are distributed widely to members of the judiciary, law school faculty and libraries, policy-makers, attorneys and the public. Our 2017 Forum, Jurisdiction: Defining State Courts' Authority, took place on July 22, 2017 in Boston.

Academic Symposia—The Institute holds periodic Academic Symposia in conjunction with the nation's top law schools in an effort to produce new empirical research supportive of the civil justice system. The academic papers prepared for the symposia are published in the co-sponsoring law school's Law Review. Recent and future symposia include The "War" on the Civil Justice System, with Emory Law in October 2015; The Demise of the Grand Bargain with Rutgers and Northeastern in September 2016; and Jury Trial And Remedy Guarantees with Oregon Law Review and the Oregon Jury Project in May 2017.

Appellate Advocacy Award—The Institute established this award for legal practitioners to recognize excellence in appellate advocacy in America and those who achieve it. The Award is given to attorney(s) who have been instrumental in securing a final appellate court decision with significant impact on the right to trial by jury, public health and safety, consumer rights, civil rights, access to civil justice.

Howard Twigg Memorial Lecture on Legal Professionalism—Founded in 2010 to honor former Pound President Howard Twigg – a legal giant, consummate professional and champion of justice for Americans – this annual lecture series, held during the annual conventions of the American Association for Justice, educates attorneys on ethics and professionalism in the legal field. The 2017 lecture was delivered by Prof. Arthur Miller of NYU School of Law, addressing the role of trial lawyers as private attorneys general.

Papers of the Pound Institute—Pound has an expansive library of research resulting from its Judges Forums, Warren Conferences, research grants, Academic Symposia, Roundtable discussions, and other sources. This research, Papers of the Pound Civil Justice Institute, is available via Pound's website (www.poundinstitute.org) or by contacting the Pound Institute.

Pound Fellows—Attorneys who care about preserving the civil justice system are invited to join Pound's important dialogue with judges and legal academics by becoming a Pound Fellow. We offer several affordable, tax-deductible membership levels, with monthly options available.
